

Yakutat Home Rule Borough - Charter

A home rule borough or city may exercise all legislative powers not prohibited by law or by charter.

All organized governments have certain fundamental duties such as conducting elections and holding regular meetings of the governing bodies.

All organized boroughs (including home rule and except third class boroughs) must operate municipal school districts on an areawide basis and must exercise planning, platting, and land use regulation throughout the borough.

Supporting Documents

Charter 294.88 KB